

Development and Sustainability Science: Exploratory meeting

January 28-29, 2014. UiB Global, Jekteviksbakken 31, Bergen

---

Tuesday 28th Jan

09:30-10:00: Opening by Gro Lie (UiB Global) and Alberto D. Cimadamore (CROP)
Presentation of the objectives of the seminar and their links to the group's previous work of (Workshop in Bergen, May 2013 and the book project on Development and Sustainability Science)

Session 1: Moderator: Gro Lie (UiB Global)

10:00-10:15: UiB support to proposals for Horizon2020 (Emmanuel Babatunde)

10:15-13:00: Presentations, brainstorming and open discussion.

All the participants will be asked to address the following question: (10 minutes each)

-What are the most pressing topics and problems you find in our previous work (workshop and book project) that could be both interesting and important to elaborate as themes for an eventual research proposal?

12:00-12:30 Altyn Aringazina input, and discussion

12:30-13:00 Jane Springett input, and discussion

13:00-14:00: Lunch

Session 2: Moderator: Maurice Mittelmark (HEMIL)

14:00-17:30: Contributions from afar addressing the above question.

- Inputs from Skype (max 10 minutes presentation, 20 minutes discussion).
- Participants from afar are asked to send their talking points in writing (300-500 words) to facilitate the dialogue.

Open discussion, Alberto Cimadamore

Wrapping up the "brain storm" with a purpose: identification of a viable and interesting problem and/or general topic for an eventual application.

Wednesday 29th

09:30-13:00: Session 3: “Going back to earth”. Moderator: Alberto Cimadamore (CROP)

Participants will be invited to address the following questions: (max. 5 minutes each)

How do our research interests and possibilities fit in the Horizon 2020 agenda?

Are there other options to continue our collaboration? (Bjørn Erik Andersen / UiB will be invited make a brief presentation on (5-10 minutes on the possibilities we have within the WUN)

How to transform the previous discussion into a viable draft research question and a road map?

How can you and your institution participate in an eventual proposal?

13:00-14:00: Lunch

14:00-15:30: Session 4: Moderator: Fungi P Gwanzura Ottemoller (HEMIL)

Conclusions & next steps

---

Wednesday January 29th, 15:30 – 17:00 hs

Public Meeting at the Bergen Resource Centre (BRC)

“Health, Poverty and Sustainability Science”

Introduction by Maurice Mittelmark (HEMIL)

Speakers: Jane Springett (University of Alberta, Canada),

Altyn Aringazina (Kazakhstan School of Public Health)

Panel discussion and dialogue with audience

Moderator: Alberto Cimadamore (CROP).

17:00 Reception